Productivity challenges? That's an opportunity

You should expect more from your technology—the workplace is complex enough as it is. AppRiver Secure Cloud makes it simpler.

With Microsoft 365 as a foundation, your productivity can soar to its full, collaborative potential. And with AppRiver's Microsoft 365 Security Audit, you'll get unique insight into your environment's vulnerabilities as well as remediation tools and ongoing protection. It's all wrapped in AppRiver's Phenomenal Care which includes 24/7 support that resolves 97% of inquiries on the first call.

Join forces with the #1 Microsoft partner and leading cloud email productivity, security, and compliance platform.

Today's challenges

A. Limited collaboration
Employees are disconnected from the people and information they need.

"You're working on the old version?"

B. High-pressure environment
Lack of communication oversight. HR and legal don't have visibility.

"Legal needs this for a litigation."

C. Increased Vulnerability
The move to the cloud, remote work, and shadow IT create tool sprawl and risk.

"Let's find a workaround; we need this done."

D. Disruption and interruption
Institutional reluctance to evolve and experiment.

"The email looked like it was from the CEO."

E. Restrictive access
Managing your team's office apps pulls you away from more important work.

"I can't get into my email"
